

Golden Eagles member Sharyn Fennegan has provided the sad news that former Continental Captain James Randall Davis flew West in 2022. We occasionally get a notice of a former Continental pilot who has flown West several months after the fact, and this is the case in this instance. We have no information on Captain Davis`s passing other than it was in 2022. He flew for Continental from 1983 through 2005 and retired as a 777 Captain.

If any Golden Eagles member has additional information regarding the passing of Captain Davis, please provide it to us and it will be shared with the membership. Apparently, Captain Davis lived alone and as a result there was no information made available to us when he passed.

The Golden Eagles sends belated condolences to Captain Davis`s family and we hope they are at peace with the memories of their loved one.

Rest in peace Captain Davis.
