

The sad news that former Continental First Officer Dick Mauer flew West in October of 2021 was just received from Golden Eagles member Captain John North. This delayed information was only made available in a recent issue of the ALPA magazine. In spite of the passage of time since Dick`s passing, it was deemed appropriate to notify our members that one of their former co-workers had flown West.

The Golden Eagles sends its belated condolences to Dick`s family for their loss.

First Officer Dick Mauer

1944 - 2021

Dick Maurer passed away in October, 2021. Dick was buried in the Fort Logan National Cemetery in Denver, CO. He was 77 years old.

Dick began his professional life serving his country in the Navy. He became an airline pilot with Holiday Airlines in 1972 then served as an F.B.I. Special Agent 1972-1978. Dick was hired by Braniff in 1978, but was caught up in the furlough just 2 years later. He was hired by one of the upstart airlines, Frontier Horizon in 1983 then went onto Continental Airlines. After his airline retirement in 2004, Dick was employed in the delivery of commercial trucks. He was living in Denver, CO.
