We'd sure like to see you in Vegas, but we "ain't gonna" unless you get off the dime and sign up SOON!!!

Convention tab

Convention FORM

THEN...Go to the STORE tab

Scroll down to Convention Banquet Buffet and choose your QUANTITY (no matter how hungry you might think you'll be...this is "all you can eat", so even us "big eaters" only need 1per person)

Add that to the "Cart"

Then don't forget the "missus" (or other significant other) if they want to attend the Ladies Lunch (this is a bit fancy for us guys, so we usually go eat wings somewhere...Hooters is next door but we ain't exactly sayin')

Add THAT to the "Cart"

Then go to "Check Out" so Bruce can get your money (he only keeps small percentage). If you can't get this to work, call Bruce...he'll probably only take a slightly larger percentage for his efforts

Rumor has it that Bruce has taken to working "back side of the clock" so feel free to call him in the middle of the night. If he get's mad, just tell him Gentry made you do it.

Now Get This Done, so we can get the good times rollin."

Gary
