

The sad news that former Continental Captain Pete Seal has flown West was just received from Golden Eagles member Captain Bill Vaughn. Bill's message is posted below:

Peter Seal passed Saturday, 22 June 2024. Funeral arrangements in Memphis are pending.

Too many of our vintage are leaving

Regards,

Bill Vaughn

The Golden Eagles sends condolences to Pete's family at this difficult time. Rest in peace Captain, and Godspeed on your final flight West.

This notice was sent with limited information available in order to provide our members with timely information about former Continental pilots who have flown West. Additional information will be provided when/if it is received.
