Their son, Ryan Patrick, was born on January 23, 1977. Jim was honorably discharged from the Air Force and his family moved to Colorado in 1978. Their daughter, Tayler Min Dae, arrived from Seoul in April of 1982. Jim flew commercial airliners for Continental Airlines for 32 years, including the DC-9, DC-10, B-727, B-737, and B-777, until his retirement in 2010.

Jim's golden years were spent traveling around the world, improving his golf game, building and flying his Vans RV-8 experimental aircraft, building his RV-10, and relishing in big milestones and small moments with his family and friends. He is survived and adored by his wife, Evy, their son, Ryan Moore and his life partner, Mary Gilbert, their daughter, Tayler Moore Mathis and her husband, Drew, and their three granddaughters, Sophie Moore, Sasha Moore, and River Mathis.
