

Many of you will remember Continental Flight Attendant Pete Ramsey, who just recently retired. Pete has organized a social group called the EX-CON Social Group and it is open to all former Continental Employees. The details are available on Facebook, and those who may wish to join the group can do so there.

The group has planned a reunion for all former Continental employees in downtown Denver for October 7th and 8th at 1400 Market St. I believe the site is called The Celtic On Market. Here is a brief summary of the schedule of events.

Oct 7th 1400 market st

Reunion 7-11pm 1900-2300

Oct 8 1130-1330

Meet greet cocktails/beverages

1900-2300 second night all events at same venue

There were a number of hotel rooms reserved for out of town attendees, but apparently they have been filled. Other hotels in the vicinity have rooms available, but they are rather pricey!!

Pete says it is not necessary to be a member of the social group to attend, and all former CAL employees are welcome.

It sounds like a fun event, so if you can fit it into your schedule, join the group for some fun and great memories.

This notice was issued by the Golden Eagles in support of the ongoing Continental spirit and to facilitate maintaining friendships and connections among former Continental employees. This is the purpose of the Golden Eagles organization and we felt it important to assist other groups who share our commitment to the "good ole` days of Continental".
